

My Final Facebook Post as Moderator of the 143rd GA

My heartfelt thanks to all who have read, liked, “heart”ed, and supported the prayers and other material I have posted over the last year. I have been humbled by your encouragement and support, I have been honoured to do this. Thank you for letting me do this.

I have decided to go silent on Facebook and on other social media until Labour Day. I will soon be a past moderator and want to create space between my being “The Moderator” and my being a past moderator.

Thank you for this year.

A PRAYER

God of the Church, pour out your Spirit upon the church you have called to yourself. By the action of the Holy Spirit make us witnesses to your glory and grace seen in Jesus Christ, and lead us into self-giving service to the world so that all glory may be given to your Holy name.

Call us from every nation and people group and language and culture, that in the multitude of the world’s languages all people on earth might hear the wondrous story of your Son, Jesus Christ, whom to know is life itself.

Make your church into a community where the love and commitment we share overflows to reach a world around, so that people will be nurtured in their physical lives and supported in their spiritual lives, until with all of creation the reconciliation of the creation is completed.

These things we pray in the name of Jesus Christ, the reconciler of all things. Amen.
