

Repairers of the Breach

“Is it not to share your bread with the hungry,
and bring the homeless poor into your house;
when you see the naked, to cover them,
and not to hide yourself from your own kin?
Then your light shall break forth like the dawn.
If you offer your food to the hungry
and satisfy the needs of the afflicted,
then your light shall rise in the darkness;
You shall be called the Repairer of the Breach.”
— Isaiah 58

We are deeply spurned and challenged with the prayer of supporting, uplifting, protecting, embracing those in our “family.” We all are like a parent called to a new spiritual bond to accept from the cross our child, our kindred (Jn 19:26-27) in protecting the most vulnerable among us from harm and hurt. In the face of injustice and inhumane suffering, Christ doesn’t ask about our politics. He forges us together in the fires of corrective justice and empowering love.

“Lord, stir us to be Repairers of the Breach.”
